

ETRURIA INDUSTRIAL MUSEUM

James Watt

The father of the Industrial Revolution

Bicentenary Events

31st July to 4th August

200 years since his death

Display : Three talks : Weekend steaming

Wednesday 31st July at 2.15pm - James Watt's Life & Achievements by Dr Malcolm Dick
£8.00 per person including guided tour of the mill and light refreshments.

Thursday 1st August at 6.30pm - James Watt's Lap Engine of 1788 by David Hulse
£8.00 per person including guided tour of the mill and light refreshments.

Friday 2nd August 6.15pm - The achievements of James Watt by Dr Jim Andrew
See the 1820s beam engine and 1857 mill operating the mill £20.00 per person with buffet.

Saturday 3rd and Sunday 4th August - Mill in steam from 12.30pm to 4.30pm Engine starting on the hour. Entry to the mill £4 OR £6 to include a guided tour, under 16s free with a paying adult

Booking essential for the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday talks by contacting: info@etruriamuseum.org.uk OR booking on <http://www.etruriamuseum.org.uk/james-watt-200-years/>

Car Park and entrance: Etruria Industrial Museum, Etruria Vale Road, Etruria, Stoke-on-Trent ST1 4RB
www.etruriamuseum.org.uk

Limited access to the Mill for those with mobility difficulties