THE GREENPOWER CHALLENGE AT KING JAMES'S SCHOOL

Institution of
MECHANICAL ENGINEERS

King James's School has been designing, building and racing electric powered cars in the national competition for the last 12 years with events at some of the major racing circuits in the country. Come along and find out how the Young Engineers Club has approached the challenge and how it is developing its cars and the next generation of UK engineers.

Enter the balloon car race challenge!
