BRIEFING SESSION FOR BEC 2021 AND EAC 2021

Institution of MECHANICAL ENGINEERS
Hong Kong Branch

energy institute
Hong Kong

Building Energy Code (BEC) and Energy Audit Code (EAC) under Buildings Energy Efficiency Ordinance of Hong Kong are reviewed once every three years. The new BEC 2021 Edition and the EAC 2021 Edition have been developed in tandem with the global development of relevant technology and energy efficiency standards.

In this Webinar, Electrical and Mechanical Services Department was invited to brief and introduce our members the new BEC 2021 and the EAC 2021.
