TECHNICAL LECTURE
AJAX –THE WORLDS MOST ADVANCED FAMILY OF FIGHTING VEHICLES

Speaker: Steve Bingley CEng MIET
Chief Engineer, Future Business, General Dynamics, Land Systems

Thursday 14 February 2019 – 7:30pm

Hereford University Centre, Folly Lane, Hereford, HR1 1LS

AJAX will be at the core of the British Army's deployable Intelligence, Surveillance, Target Acquisition and Reconnaissance capability. It enables the soldier to be at the point of collection of accurate and timely all-weather commander information.

This presentation covers the technology behind the AJAX family of vehicles, the development process, tools, integration and testing facilities used to deliver this world leading capability.
